

Veritas Law Joins GRATA International Network

We are pleased to announce that Veritas Law has joined the international legal network GRATA International as an associate office and is now its official office in Thailand.

Joining GRATA International marks an important strategic step for our firm. It enables us to offer clients even higher-quality legal services, broaden our practice areas, and deepen our expertise in key industries. Through our participation in this global network, we can provide comprehensive legal support not only in Thailand but also at the international level. This is especially valuable for cross-border projects and clients looking to enter new markets.

GRATA International is an international legal network with presence in more than 25 countries stretching from Europe, across Asia and the Middle East, all the way to China. The network also has representatives in key financial and business centers including London, New York, Frankfurt, Zurich, Beijing, Dubai and Jakarta. Its teams of highly qualified lawyers provide a full range of legal services for both international and local businesses. GRATA International's expertise is recognized with high rankings in all the leading international legal directories.

Aidar Sarymsakov, Member of the Global Board, Senior Partner, GRATA International:

"We are delighted to welcome Veritas Law as our associate office in Thailand. Their professional integrity, regional expertise, and forward-thinking approach make them a strong addition to our Network. We are confident this partnership will create an important synergy for the benefit of our clients and colleagues"

Ruengrit Pooprasert, Managing Partner, Veritas Law:

"We are confident that this collaboration will provide our clients with access to a broader range of services, deep industry knowledge, and international opportunities. At the same time, we remain an independent law firm, offering a personalized approach and in-depth understanding of the Thai market."
